GENERAL DATA PROTECTION REGULATION (GDPR)

On 25th May 2018 new regulations came into force concerning the way we handle membership data. They concern all clubs however small and any of you wishing to still receive communications from Cumnor Gardening Club must agree in writing that you are willing for us to hold your personal details consisting of names, postal addresses, email addresses, telephone numbers and eligibility for Gift Aid, as given to us by you.

Those of you on email were contacted and asked for your agreement for us to use your email address on 10th May 2018. From 2019 onwards, the annual renewal of membership form includes a record of your data that we hold. By signing to renew your membership, you also agree to our holding and using this information.

At present the information is held at the homes of the Executive Committee elected annually by the membership at the Club's AGM and listed on our Programme Card. These data are protected as far as this is possible. We will endeavour to keep your details up to date when you tell us of changes. We will not pass your details on to any third party without your prior agreement.

Your data is used by the Club to communicate with you about Club activities either by email, post or telephone and, where appropriate, to make applications for Gift Aid.
